A 45-minute thunder and lightning storm coursed through Minden last Thursday and in the process damaged a television set, hit a propane tank and partially destroyed a shed and a garage.

Most serious damage occurred when lightning struck the shed and garage of Rev. Lorne Schmidt. The garage and half the shed were destroyed, along with a chain saw, snow blower, tools and lawnmowers.

The storm, which hit the area shortly after 8 p.m., damaged the television set of Dean Elliott and hit propane tanks belonging to John A. C. Kernohan. There was no explosion.

"BATHING BEAUTY" GONE

Wally McMullen is looking for his bathing beauty. She's the good-looking chick in the bikini whose been lolling around in that tiny, carnival-ride punt on his roadside pond at Highway 121 just east of Highway 519, over the past few weeks.

Lolling around, that is, until some time last Friday night when she disappeared, minus her wig.

Wally isn't sure whether she was "kidnapped" or "just went gallivanting off", but either way she had to have some help because she's a real, inflatable doll made of plastic, even if she does stand about five feet tall in her bobby sox.

She was gone when Wally got up Saturday morning and he'd like to have her back.

Pinch Hitting for Fenwick Finch

"There'll Be Some Changes Made" landed in the top ten song hits quite some years ago. Upon my return to "God's Country", I find that the tune could appropriately be sung in this area today.

It was my pleasure to tour the new Minden Community Centre last week. Local residents are to be highly commended for erecting this exciting facility. I am told that the structure contains 27,000 cinder blocks. It is a matter of pride with me that I must own a few due to a small donation to the building fund a couple of years ago when the drive was just getting under way.

The biggest surprise was in the change of ownership of this paragraph factory from Al Greir to Bill Foote. I also note that Roy Courtney has brightened up the main stem with a handsome new outside sign for the "Drug Shoppe". Bill O'Brien, apparently not to be outdone by Roy, has refurbished the "Sportsman's Lounge" on the inside of the Rockcliffe Hotel.

Quite a strange sight to see a "For Sale" sign on the "Old Clergy House" and learn that Norm and Mary Maidens are settled in a handsome "coach" out at Lutterworth Pines. Even that backbone of the community, the Chamber of Commerce, has been subject to change with Larry Perrott now holding title as Secretary-Manager.

Farther up the line, out on Route 121, Norm and Pat Kilby have taken over the Hilltop Market, Snack Bar and Pizza Parlor from long time owners, the Suter family.

Norm tells me that the Suters who moved out to Calgary to be near a daughter said they had their fill of store life when they sold out. Latest report from Calgary is that both of the Suters are working in stores. You can't win 'em all.

At Dorset I discover that Brad and Bev Robinson of Robinson's General Store are nearing completion of their new home built around their small but beautiful original log cabin residence.

Granddaughter Kathy Monahan, whom I brought with me to Hospitality Inn, deserted me early in the week to spend a few days with the Robinson's daughter, pen pal Joanne. Both gals are twelve.

The new Robinson dwelling is a plus for the region. In fact it would make a hit in one of those Sunday newspaper supplements featuring outstanding homes. Perhaps our own accomplished "About the Town" columnist, Jeanne Sears, could be persuaded to do a column on the new Robinson house one day to give it the proper woman's touch.

I have this sneaking feeling that Fenwick Finch is going to plead a sudden out of town engagement about the time next week's column is due, and that I may be filling in again.

Like the man said, "There'll Be Some Changes Made".

EDITORIALLY

with Bill Foote

Its with great pleasure we welcome guest columnist Pete McGarvey. First of all, he's an old and dear friend. Secondly, he's an outstanding, award-winning radio newsmen and commentator. Pete's travelled the world in quest of news and August 1 takes over at Toronto's CKEY as the station's news analyst and commentator. Welcome Pete. Come back soon.

by Pete McGarvey

We came on a journey of nostalgia to Haliburton last week, my wife, my son Doug and I. We've been a long time away.

My last memory of the highlands was a dark midnight nine years ago. That was the night the OWLP power-station burned down, and I broadcast the tidings, "live and direct from the scene".

There were many Haliburton memories in the two decades before that. I used to make the long swing from Orillia to Norkland, then to Minden, Dorset, and on to Huntsville and Orillia every two weeks for many of those years. Ostensibly I was gathering information from CFOR sponsors, and recording songs and talks by talented people for later broadcast. But in reality I was on a grand venture — discovering anew ever-forgotten the incomparable glories of this landscape. Where else on earth do hills and lakes and trees and clouds come together with such perfection? Do roads anywhere in the world lead to more soul-satisfying vistas? To soaring high granite cliffs and black waters, and evergreens marching in tiers up and up and up to a flawless blue sky?

Our earliest memory goes to back to 1950. We honeymooned here on the shores of Lake Kashagawigamog. And we golfed at a course where you blasted your ball from the 9th tee straight from the top of a high hill.

It was good to come back last week. And better (and surprising) to find so little of it has changed. Minden and Haliburton and Dorset and West Guilford appear about the same in size and tranquility. The roads are better, and straighter now, but still lead to the most breath-taking scenery on earth.

Even the theatre in Haliburton village is still there. One rainy night on our honeymoon, we drove in to see a picture about men landing on the moon, and found it all too incredible and Buck Rogerish to be taken seriously. Nineteen years later I was dockside at Pearl Harbour in Hawaii, when the crew of Apollo 11, the first men to walk on the moon, reached terra cirna again!

But our hymn to Haliburton includes more than the scenic wonders. The pace of life here is part of it, too, and so are the people. Our exile in Southwestern Ontario had dimmed our recollection of what might be called the Mid-Ontario manner. We'd forgotten how gracious and charming living can be among people who take time to live it.

Like the 72 year old self-appointed, one-man Chamber of Commerce in Dorset, for instance, who spotted my camera, and without being asked, gave me explicit directions on how to reach the look-out tower, just up the highway, where he assured me, the picture-taking was magnificent and the drinking water cold and refreshing. "I've been coming here for fifty years," he told me . . . "now I'm retired and living here year-round . . . and loving it", he volunteered.

Then there was the man behind the bar at Sir Sam's Inn on Eagle Lake. Being a bit of an Ontario history nut, I was fascinated by this baronial structure in an idyllic setting, as I had been earlier intrigued with the career of the man who had lived there. Sir Sam Hughes was Canada's Defence Minister from 1911 to 1916. But getting back to the man behind the bar. Just inside the door is a gallery of portraits of Canada's Prime Ministers, all the way from Sir John A. to Pierre T. One portrait is missing . . . that of William Lyon MacKenzie King, whose tenure was longer than any of the others. "Why"? we (Continued on next column)

MASON JARS IN DEMAND

"There's gold in them there Mason Jars."

That's the word about the latest mania of collectors in all parts of Canada.

Mason jars, the original container for home preserves, used to sell for 55 cents a dozen at the turn of the century but they are now worth from $40.00 to $50.00 each. Prices can run as high as $150.00 for some types of antique fruit jars.

The art of home preserving is gaining in popularity in Canada and the Mason jar is coming into its own again, according to Peter R. Johnson, a Dominion Glass Company Limited development manager.

The Mason Jar itself goes back to 1858 when John Landis (Mason of New York City) obtained a patent for a glass container made air-tight by a metal screw-on cap. Heating and then sealing of food in these containers paved the way for home preserving in North America.

But fruit jars are not the only interest of glass collectors.

Glass tableware, lantern globes, lightning arresters, telegraph insulators, battery jars, city street light globes, large jars for water coolers, medical and pharmaceutical containers are sought in Canada today.

EDITORIAL CONTINUED by Pete McGarvey

asked the man behind the bar. "Couldn't you find a picture? is it out for repairs?"

"Oh no," he assured us . . . "It's not there and never will be Mr. Bishop didn't like him". We didn't ask who Mr. Bishop was, but obviously his heart was in tune with that of the man who built the home. If you happen to hear a ghostly chuckle along the shore of Eagle Lake these warm summer nights it's surely Sir Sam approving the ouster of one whose sentiments in another war a quarter century after "HIS" world war, he would have viewed with alarm and disgust. "Conscription if necessary, but not necessarily conscription" would have been as a red flag in front of an enraged bull, had Sir Sam been Defence Minister in World War Two rather than World War One.

On top of everything else . . . breathless landscape, and wonderful people, Haliburton has gutsy history and heritage, too. And we love it all.

Dominion Hotel Take Second In Tournament

Oshawa Pops came out on top of the pack in the tournament held on last Sunday in Haliburton as they defeated Dominion in the final game of the day. Notes Of Interest In Tournament

Snell picked up fifteen strikeouts in first game against Harcourt.

Ben Bannock was back in action for Haliburton and looks to be getting over his injury as he pitched a great game against the strong Oshawa team.

Rick Hartwick pitched the second game for Dominion against Sutton and held them to just three hits. The Shufflers also picked up Floyd Henry of the Juniors to complete their roster for the tournament.

Craig Stamp pitched a great game against Sutton as they had a scoreless game going until the sixth inning.

Many thanks to all the umpires who helped out for the day.

Haliburton 8 — Dominion 6

The Merchants took over sole possession of first place as they squeezed by the Shufflers on last Wednesday's game. The game started of very close as at the end of 5 innings it was 2 - 1 for Haliburton. In the sixth however the Merchants picked up 6 big runs to take a commanding lead. In the sixth the Dominion picked up 2 and three more in the seventh to close the gap to 8 - 6 before being retired to end the game.

Haven Cook was the winning pitcher and Jack Snell the loser. Cook also had two doubles for Haliburton and Brohman was 3 - 4 for the locals. John Welch took a sure home run away from Salvatori, as he jumped in the air to catch a ball and fell over the fence.

Cliff Burk and W. Sawyer and D. Thomas umpired the game.

RECOMMEND CHANGE IN DISPLAY OF MILK PRICES

Ontario's milk retailers may be required to display the price of milk and the deposit on its container separately, if the recommendation made to Environment Minister James Auld is adopted. This suggestion has been made by the milk packaging working group of the Solid Waste Task Force, comprised of representatives from citizen's groups, government agencies, and industrial associations and which is currently investigating solutions to this province's solid waste problems.

In its recommendation, the group stated that, if properly displayed at the dairy case, this would assist the consumer to compare the price of milk products in refillable containers with that of milk products in "throwaways".

In many cases, the group pointed out, only the gross price of the milk and the container are displayed. "By displaying the net price of the product, they felt that the consumer would be made more aware of the savings available by purchasing returnable containers," said Mr. Auld.

The Evinrude Sportwin is a best seller for several reasons. First is its transom-hugging shape and easy portability. It's only 34 inches top to prop, so you can fish over it. It can hustle a light skimmer up to 20 mph. Or run in 8 quick-tilt positions through weeds and over shoals. It fits your car trunk, your vacation plans, and your budget.

A PROGRAM TO COMPENSATE COMMERCIAL FISHERMEN FOR PRODUCTION LOSSES DUE TO MERCURY CONTAMINATION

On June 25 the Minister of Lands and Forests announced a program to purchase fish contaminated with mercury. This program will remove much of the risk for commercial fishermen who may take fish which cannot be marketed because the mercury level exceeds one half parts per million. It will also allow fish buyers to pay commercial fishermen full prices for their production.

An intensive sampling program to establish those lakes in which the fish do not contain more than one half part per million of mercury is also underway. The Minister pointed out that this information will have the effect of directing the fishermen to certain lakes or species of fish and in turn reduce the amount of contaminated fish purchased.

The Minister also announced that during this critical year at least, the freshwater fish marketing corporation will continue to purchase fish in northwestern Ontario. Private business throughout the districts of Thunder Bay and Kenora will act as agents of the corporation in the buying, processing and shipping of fish.

The freshwater fish marketing corporation was created by Federal and Provincial Legislation to buy and market fish from northwestern Ontario and the western provinces. Its objective was to strengthen the position of fishermen, especially those who were receiving low prices for their catches.

This program will provide the time needed by the commercial fishery to adjust with a minimum production loss, to the difficulties caused by mercury levels above the acceptable limit in certain species in a number of Ontario lakes.

SUPPLEMENTARY AERIAL PHOTOGRAPHY

For economic reasons, the regular aerial survey photography (Scale 1:15840) cannot be repeated often enough to update changes in the landscape features.

As a result, a technique of high and low altitude photography using motorized 35mm cameras has been developed by the Timber Branch. Within the Department, the method is known as Supplementary Aerial Photography (SAP).

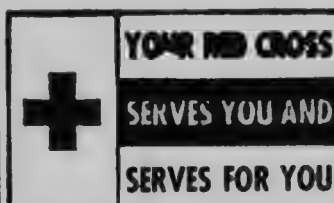

On photos of excellent quality, SAP gives a record of the changes in the landscape that are vital concern of the Department. The method is also an excellent means of sampling areas for land classification and to carry out comparative studies for research purposes.

Briefly, a Nikon camera is mounted in the cargo hatch of the Turbo Beaver. A timing mechanism is set at a pre-selected time interval which will give the desired forward stereoscopic overlap. Flight lines which most conveniently cover the area to be photographed are then flown. Adjoining flight lines can be planned to give stereo overlap between the lines.

Either one of the two lens systems is used. They are a 24mm focal length wide angle lens and a 55mm focal length normal angle lens. Also available are a number of filters in order that the sensitivities of various films can either be modified or corrected.

Panchromatic, colour and infrared black and white are the different types of film that have been used to get the required information.

The Lindsay Forest District has been fortunate in securing one of these camera units and it has already been put to good use.

Speaking On SPORT

by LARRY SCOTT

Last Sunday the Minden Merchants played hosts to the County League All Stars at the Minden Fairgrounds. The Merchants outslugged the All Stars 17 to 13.

Jack Snell went all the way for the Merchants while Mark Schell and George Simmons combined for the All Stars. Home runs in the game were hit by Gene Newell, Larry Scott and Neil Burke.

The score was 5 to 0 after the first inning as both Burk and Austin singled, then Newell blasted over the fence, scoring 3. Jackson and Morrison also hit and Morrison stole home to make it 5 to 0.

The All Stars came up with 2 runs in the second to make it 5 to 2 and it stayed that way to the fourth. The Merchants scored 3 in the fourth and 2 in the fifth to lead 10 to 2 after five. In the sixth the Merchants could only score once while the All Stars scored 3 to make the score 11 to 5. In the seventh the Merchants got 3 while the All Stars got 5 to make it 14 to 10. In the eighth the Merchants scored 3 while the All Stars were held scoreless. After the ninth the Merchants came out with a 17 to 13 win.

This Sunday at the Fairgrounds the Oshawa OASA Champion Novices are taking on the Minden Novices at 2.00 p.m. Plans are trying to be made to bring the Lindsay Bantams back to play Minden at 4:00 p.m. and finally the Raiders vs OPP at 6.30 p.m.

All the collection received for these games will go towards the new arena. The Novice game should be an exciting one. The Oshawa team is made up of the best in Oshawa and are ready for the OASA playdowns. For the Minden team it will be their first encounter with a team of this calibre and it should prove to be quite a game. If Lindsay will return we can also promise you another close game as the Lindsay team took home a 5 to 2 victory the last time they played. With this experience under their belt it should prove very interesting.

In the final game at 6.30 p.m. the Raiders fresh from a win over the I.G.A. Ladies, take on the O.P.P. This should prove to be quite a game, especially for the spectators. Minden and Cobocok Detachments will combine to take on the Raiders. We Predict O.P.P. by 5 runs.

The Minden Recreation Committee would like to announce the opening for the summer of its playground, situated at the Public School in Minden. Playgrounds will be open starting July 12 at 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. daily except Saturday and Sunday.

We are also pleased to announce the playground supervisors for this year are Miss Bonnie Stinson and Miss Mary Ellen Agnew. Activities have been planned for the children in arts and crafts, sports, games, etc. Remember playgrounds open Monday July 12. There will be no charge for this as it is sponsored by the Minden Recreation Centre.

As we mark the secondary anniversary of the U.S. truth-in-lending act passage, I thought it would be interesting to report to you on the results of a recent Federal Trade Commission survey.

Five classes of retailers were checked for their compliance with the legislation—new and used automobile dealers, home improvement concerns, television and appliance dealers, furniture and jewelry stores.

As most of you are probably aware, the truth-in-lending law, which became effective in the U.S. on July 1, 1969 requires consumer creditors to disclose to borrowers their finance cha-ges in dollars and cents and as annual percentage rate.

In the FTC survey, 86 per cent of the creditors checked were at least in "substantial compliance" with the law. This is to mean that these merchants were using the proper terms in disclosing the annual percentage rate and finance charge, although some of the more technical requirements weren't fully complied with by some.

Total compliance was recorded by 69 per cent, but 14 per cent were listed as being in serious violation of the law. The worst records were among jewelry stores and used car dealers.

For jewelry stores, only about half were found to be in total compliance while over 37% were listed as being in serious violation of the law. Among car dealers with annual sales of less than $100,000 a year (a group composed almost entirely of used car dealers) only 40 per cent were in total compliance, and to borrowers their finance cha-

CAREFUL MOWING IMPROVES LAWNS

The chief reason for mowing the lawn is not to improve the grass but its appearance. The leaves produce food. The more leaf, the more food and roots produced, and the stronger the plants. Cutting removes part of the food source. Gardening specialists at the Ontario Department of Agriculture and Food offer these points to keep in mind when you mow your lawn.

Don't cut too close; a height of 1½ to 2 inches is preferred. Enough leaf will then be left for sufficient food production by the plant. Frequent light mowing gives the best results. Excessive close cutting often results in thin grass, weeds, and lessened resistance to drought.

A new lawn started in the spring, can be cut when it is about 2½ inches high. The light clippings can be left on the lawn in all cases as they will soon rot and disappear.

See that the blades of your mower are sharp. Dull blades tear and bruise the tips, giving the lawn a burnt appearance. Buy a good lawn mower and keep it in good condition. The extra expense involved will be worthwhile.

ABOUT THE TOWN

With Jeanne Sears

Sad news for USSR after so successful a time in a Space Station, the Astronauts were dead when their ship came down for a soft landing. Instead of the parades planned for them, they were buried in heroes graves. The data they brought back was excellent and this experience will be invaluable for future journeys.

Sincere sympathy to the family and friends of the late James Hie whose funeral was late last week.

Now that school is out and youngsters are walking or biking to town we wonder if motorists notice the 30 mile sign beside the Progress Office. Many persons also walk back from the doctor's office and we have noticed cars going much faster than the speed limit.

Mr. and Mrs. John Clarke have left by plane for Europe and a two month holiday there, lucky people.

Once again this year there will be Live Theatre at the High School Auditorium, Monday nights beginning July 12th. First night will have "A Thousand Clowns". This group is directed by Dan MacDonald, James Swan and Dennis Sweeting and curtain time is 8.30. This is a real change from T.V.

Patients at the local hospital early this week were Mrs. Theo Griffin, Mrs. Debos, Mrs. Ethel Dean, Mrs. Mary E. Harrison, Mrs. Joan Morrison and baby girl, Ken Moore and Shawn Manton. In Ross Memorial is Yvonne Kirkland for surgery.

Hint of the week: Like the taste of onion but not eating it, cut a peeled onion in quarters and set around the dish and refrigerate until ready to serve and then remove it.

The Minden Furniture Store has moved across the street where the Bowling Alley was and opened July 1st. We heard that the Simpson Sears Order Office is also located here as well.

There is to be a "Penny Sale" on articles on display at the Orange Hall, Haliburton, July 29, 30 and 31st, and proceeds from this sale will help carry on the Shelter Workshop now Arc Industries at Tory Hill. This school receives no assistance or grants from the government and funds are raised by bazaars, bake sales, raffles and donations.

Do you think this is true? As far as the dollar is concerned, it Shrinks!

Ruth Greir and Danny are away in Toronto for several weeks as Danny is a patient at Hospital For Sick Children. Hope all goes well with the little fellow and that he is soon home.

This is the first column of mine in my fourth year; hope I may carry on, but need your help with items which will be of interest and please call Mondays.

Cheerio until next week.

ABOUT THE TOWN

with Jeanne Sears

Monday nights again this year at the District High School Auditorium you may see "Live" Theatre and these stage shows are comedies. The first one is Monday July 9th at 8:30 and is "How the Other Half Lives". We understand you may get a saving on these performances by buying booklets of tickets which may be used at various times or for one evening for a group.

There were several weddings of interest to the village with congratulations going to Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Cox (nee Linda Coulter) and to Mr. and Mrs. Don McElwain (nee Cynthia Kellett) and to Mr. and Mrs. Keith Robertson (nee Julie Burke) with all the weddings being on Saturday.

Don and Joy Kellett, Kevin, Troy and Tosha, formerly of Bramalea spent from Thursday till Tuesday with their families here, taking in Don's only sister Cindy's wedding on Saturday. They are flying to-day, Tuesday, to Winnipeg where Don has been transferred to manage a Northern Electric Plant. We wish them the best of luck in their new home.

The weekend saw the Rock Fest at the Recreation Centre with continuous music being played to those present. The crowd was really huge and every young person for miles around must have been there. Every Saturday night these will continue for the summer.

Sincere sympathy to the families and friends of the late Mrs. Helena Ross, Mrs. Hilda Nickel and John Mark and to Mrs. Oswald Snell and family on the death of her father.

All his friends send good wishes to Mark McKay who is presently a patient in Toronto General Hospital.

Once again you may make a visit to Huntsville, Saturday only; Algar Bus leave 12:15 arriving at Huntsville at 1.45 in time for a late lunch, some shopping and the return trip leaves at 3.20 and in this village again at 4.45. This is a good way to see the beautiful scenery of our County.

There was a good number registered for swimming classes as we hear the bus driver tell us he makes one trip in the morning and two in the afternoon for this month. The buoys and raft were set up at Twelve Mile Beach, hope the weather keeps nice for these

Read in an article if the weather is hot and humid, do keep busy, as you will notice the heat more just sitting around.

Starting Thursday there will be the Summer Exhibition and Sale at Haliburton Highlands Secondary School with hours ten to ten and Sunday the eighth one to five. You will see many crafts shown there and many of these will be on sale.

Nice weekend with the crowds really here, and the traffic on the roads is dangerous, especially weekends, so take care.

JULY 1-7 SAFE BOATING WEEK

Safe Boating Week has been set for July 1 to 7 by the Canada Safety Council.

Bruce J. Legge, Q.C., president of the C.S.C., has stated that the majority of boating accidents are caused by thoughtlessness.

"Nothing can take the place of constant awareness, common sense and courtesy", Mr. Legge said.

In 1971, for example, a total of 1,064 Canadians died drowning and three of these 277, or more than 26 per cent of the drownings, occurred in Ontario, according to Statistics Canada, Vital Statistics Section.

More than 200 of these deaths were caused by boating accidents, the majority occurring as the result of boats capsizing.
